Organising and promoting an event can be difficult at times, sometimes it seems impossible to get the right crowd to attend. There is no doubt that event promotion can be very frustrating, you have a great event organised but only a few people turn up.

Our 1EM events team have over 25 years of experience in organising events ranging from small networking events to customised masterclasses, award dinners and regional exhibitions. And with the network built over the last few years in running these events, we have developed a comprehensive database of businesses enabling us to target and invite the right delegates to the event.

Furthermore, our in-house engagement and outreach team combined with our dedicated associates, we can help find the right audience for your event, deliver all or part of the event and customise it to meet your needs.
